Attention, Subscribers.

We this week mark in the margin of the paper, after the name of each subscriber, the amount of his bill for subscription to the CHRONIOLE, up to the first of February next, the commencement of a new volume.

It will then be forn years since we took charge of the paper and quite a number of our subscribers have not paid as anything during

We hope every subscriber who finds his pa-per thus marked will promptly remit us the a-mount of his bill, and we give notice, if this is not done, we will, in all cases where more than ane year's subscription is due, strike the name from our list, add fifty cents—our arrearage terms—to their bill, and send it out for collec-

The high price of everything used in the printing business, makes it necessary that we should have prompt pay, in order to be able to corry on the business at all, and we have concluded that after the first of February, we will send the CHRONICLE to those only who pay in advance; and discontinue it in all cases, when ever the advance pay ceases, as we are now do to with many of our subscribers, at their re-

THE recent glorious news from Sherman and "Pap Thomas," has so elongated the faces of some of the Copperheads of this place that no barber would be willing to shave them for less than double rates.

LAST Friday the efficient Treasurer of this county, Capt. Amos Glover, with the assistance of R. H. Cochran Esq., received taxes to the amount of over SIX THOUSAND DOLLARS, about twelve hundred dollars more than ever was received in one day at the Treasurer's Office of this county.

AKRON, Ohio, by a census just taken proves to have the 5,000 inhabitants which entitle it to a charter for a city of the second class. The charter will therefore be applied for at the next session of the Legislature.

A short time since we published an account of a patriot who had three sons in the army, two of whom were killed and the other wounded, and the father himself, at the age of sixty-two, was in the service as a session of the Legislature.

JEFFERSON COUNTY ITEMS.

[From the Steabenville Herald, 14th ] The Herald says William Doyle, Probate Judge of Jefferson County, died on the 6th inst., of typhoid fever. John S. Patterson Esq., has been appointed to succeed him.

COMMITTED SUICIDE. -Dr. W. M. Werthington, for many years a successful prac-ticing physician at New Alexandria, and a few years ago a representative in the Ohio Legislature from this County, committed suicide last night, by taking strychnine, from the effects of which he died very suddenly. He was induced to the act, we understand, from dissipation and family difficulties-family difficulties originating is dissipation, and dissipation resulting death. What a warning!

A PIECE of iron fell upon a young man from the new railroad bridge on Tuesday, terribly lacerating him, from the effects of which he died on Wednesday morning. He was about 19 years of age, a clever young man, by the name of Jesse Hitchcock.

GUERNSHY COUNTY ITEMS. [Fram last week's Times.]

We notice in the Times that committeemen have been appointed in every Township in Guernsey County, to correct the enrollment, Is it not about time that our there are many persons enrolled who should not be; and, coosequently, our quota was excessive.

AN AMERICAN EAGLE CAUGHT. - A large American Eagle was caught in a steel-trap on Sunday night last, in Adams Township, some three or four miles from this place, by Mr. Samuel Workman. This eagle is now in possession of Mr. Geo. W. Hutchison, who bought it from Mr. Workman, and can be seen by calling at Mr. Hutchison's shop. bird, of a brown or mouse color, interspersed with grey, and measures full six feet from tip to tip of wings. It has immense talons, a powerful looking beak, and keen and piercing eyes, looking as though they could not be dezzled by the brilliant rays of the noonday sun in mid-summer.

RAILBOAD ACCIDENT. On Saturday on the Central Ohio Rail Road was so severely injured by being knocked from the cars by a bridge that spans the road a short distance East of Concord, as to cause his death a few hours after the accident occur-red. His name, we learn, was Merrit Myers, and he had been in the employ of the patch was received here on Tuesday even-ing, announcing the death of William Thompson, of this place, a member of the Signal Corps, which took place in hospital at Winchester, Va., of typheid fever. His body will be sent home for burial.

RUNAWAY. - On Thursday last, a team of four horses, owned by Mr. Jefferson Mc-Quilken, of East Township, Carroll County, got on to the tongue to ride the near horse. The reason is: They both belong to the ing Mr. Quilken to the ground, breaking two party new, and have learned to one of his arms, and the wagon wheel passed over his head, severely bruising it. Mr. McQuilken was carried into the house of Mr. Peter O'Donnels in an insensible condition. The wagon was smashed to pieces and the horses much injured, one being thrown over a bridge. The team was a valuable one.—[New Lisbon Buckeye State.

> Summary of Congressional Proceedings.

SENATE, Dec. 15.—Information was the United States and Great Britain con-cerning armed vessels on the lakes. Mr. Line offered a resolution, which was passed to inquire as to the truth of the alleger charges that large numbers of disloyal per sons are in the employment of the Govern ment in the navy-yards, Quartermaster's and Ordnance Departments, etc., of the country, to the excession of loyal men.—

Everdy Johnson opposed the resolution, but ineffectually. The resolutions of Mr. Chandler, concerning the St. Albans raid case, were sent to the Foreign Affairs Committee, Mr. Sumner having informed the Sena's that if not so referred he should make a speech upon the subject. Mr. Brown proposed an inquiry into the militia laws, with a view to amendments which Brown proposed an inquiry into the militia laws, with a view to amendments which shall secure the carollment of all male citical secure (regardless-of color) between 15 and 45. The bill to sell a gurboat to Liberia was passed, nine of the strictest Copperheads voting against it. Military bills of last session were referred to the proper committees. The Conduct of the War Committee were instructed to inquire into the Sects concerning the unsuccessful assault on Petsraburg in July last. Adjourned.

House, Dec. 15.—After calls for information, the House passed the Senate bill providing a special term of the United States Court of Indiana. An investigation was directed into the practical operation of the Pension issue, condition of invalids, &c. Mr. Cox called for information about the border raids. A resolution was offered to make a navy-yard at Uswego, N.-Y.; also, to establish a naval hospital at Eric, Pa. A bill was reported for the better organization of the Subsistence Bepartment. The resolutions of thanks to Capt. Winslow and Lieut. Cushing were adopted. Mr. Desnelly introduced a bill to require all persons applying for the banefit of the pre-emption and homestead law, fo make oath that they had not deserted from the army, or resisted the draft, or seaseted themselves to avoid being enrolled or drafted, or discouraged en-heing enrolled or drafted, or discouraged enlistments, and providing that, whenever such offenses could be proved, the land claimed should revert to the Government.

Referred. Nearly all the remainder of the session was consumed in a discussion upon our foreign policy, in which Mr. Davis severely criticised the action of Secretary Seward. Mr. Davis offered his resignation as a member of the Committee on Foreign Affairs, but the House declined to receive it. The House veted to adjourn from Dec.
22 to January 5. Mr. Ashley introduced a bill to guarantee to certain States subverted or overthrown by rebellion a republican form of government. He also gave notice that on the 6th of January sext be would call up the pending joint resolution from the Senate, proposing a constitutional amendment for the abelition of Slavery throughout the country, and that he would demand a vate upon the resolution the Mouday following. The Invalid Pension bill was passed, and als the joint resolution explaining the Tobacco tax. Adjourned.

A Patriotic Family. private. The question was asked, who could beat this and a correspondent at South Charleston. Clarke county, Ohio, sends an account of Isaac Hedrick of that victinity, who bears off the palm. Mr. Hedrick had nine can in the army of whom two have nine sons in the army, of whom two have been killed and four wounded. One was killed at Manassas Gap, and the other at Nashville, Tennessee. One was wounded at Chancellersville, Virginia, one at Stone River, one at Kinnesaw Mountain, and the other in one of Kilpatrick's raids in Georgia. The father of these nine warrior sons is fifty-nine years of age, and has been twice in the military srevice. Clarke county, Ohio, is ahead so far, and Isaac Hedrick and his sons stand A No. 1 as far as we have heard. We are open to more such facts.
